Modeling has always been a dream of mine since I was a little girl.

Aly MayLove

BORN & RAISED in the middle of a corn field in Iowa. Modeling has always been a dream of mine since i was a little girl. I started off with local little girl pageants when i was 5 years young, when J-Lo was my idol... She still is... what a beauty. It wasn't till I was 15 when i started looking more into it. After being denied quite a few times with agencies, I decided to do it on my own. November 7th, 2013, I said to hell with Iowa and moved to San Diego, California to pursue my dream, and my passion. As of April 2014 I started getting noticed. I won Miss April 2014 for Miss Social Network. Ever since then, nothing but great opportunities came my way!! I started participating in local fashion shows "Maystar's Fashion Whore" "Barraccuda Bikini" modeling for "Cotton Candy Punk Couture", "Pretty Girl Dance Wear", "Jessica Logans" "Fernanda Bikini" and "Barraccuda Bikini." I've also participated in a few bikini competitions.

Loletta Gilbert Queen

Loletta Gilbert is a 21 yr old african american female who was born & raised in Pittsburgh Pa. She is well known by her nickname Queen & her fiery attitude. She has always been the kind of lady to set her goals & work hard to achieve them, no matter what stood in her way. As a child, life for her wasn't always easy, losing her father, growing up in foster care, and being bullied. Despite all the heartbreaks, hardships, and struggles she always found a way to stay positive, happy, and succeed.. She is a fighter who refuses to ever give up no matter what and is willing to always try new things. Life is about taking risks, as she would say. Loletta enjoys playing basketball, tennis, walking, writing, and caring for others. Most of all, she loves modeling & wants to take it all the way to the top. Modeling has always been her escape when she felt as though she was never good enough or couldn't be herself. She says: "The way I feel in front of the camera is a feeling beyond deep that I can't explain. What I do know is that whenever I model I feel as though nobody else is here on this earth with me, it's just me and the camera. I am free, I am me, and I never want this happiness to end. Being beautiful is more than just your skin, but its also what's within." One of her ultimate goals in life is to open up her own modeling school to give young girls like herself opportunities to do things they thought they could never achieve. She truly believes every young lady is beautiful in their own way. She always says "No matter how many times I am doubted or told to stop, I will not. I will conquer all the way to the top and be that person I always wanted to be." Her current work speaks for itself a beautiful upcoming model in the making who is comfortable with her skin.

I'm a 'sometimes' model and enjoy sharing the beauty of people with the world and adore others who do the same.

Dreamy and contempt but often messy and confused I find it hard to upkeep an image that is glorified. I love all that glitters but in a cloud of dark you will see me most and usually at my best.

Candee Red

Red Candee is an aspiring glamour, lingerie and bikini/swimwear model from Perth, Australia. She currently works in administration but assures us that it isn't nearly as boring as people first assume when they re told: I spend half of my day looking at people's naked selfies and researching sex-related bits n pieces to write articles on all things sex.

Probably slightly ironically, Red used to be a high school teacher, which is where her passion for modelling first started. As a part of her teaching degree, she studied Drama which led to her doing photo-shoots to get some interesting images for her portfolio to do acting jobs. She originally has no interest in mod-ellings, but after her first photoshoot, she realised how much she enjoyed being in front of the camera.

Red only began to think about seriously pursuing modelling last year after her teaching career ended, and since changing careers she has been published twice in Zoo Weekly Australia as a featured competition entrant and had a one page article in American magazine Chulo Magazine. She's currently taking part in an online competition called Playboy Miss Social, which is a non-nude international competition, as well as numerous other competitions to be featured in calendars and on maga-zine covers.

When it comes to her life outside of work and pursuing mod-elling, Red loves shopping, going to watch live theatre or to the movies, checking out live music, heading out with friends for a few drinks and a dance, and she really enjoys eating out and other things that get her out of the house but back to bed at a decent hour during the week! As a single girl, she also loves dating and meeting new people, and really enjoys the freedom of being single. When it comes to the kind of guy that she likes, Red says "I love guys that have strength and a natural confidence. You don't have to be a muscle-bound gym-freak to have both of those things - it's a person-ality thing. I also love when they're taller and I feel little and petite next to them! They also look much hotter in the morning than women do!" She also commented that she's partial to the 'hot geek' look in guys and loves glasses and intelligence.

Surprisingly, she says that she meets most of her dates online: "I love on-line dating. I can be lying in bed in my PJs with zero make-up on look-ing hideous and be putting in the groundwork for a hot date! So con-venient. Plus people are much more upfront about what they're after on there."

As to what she plans to do next, Red plans to enter any online modelling competition that she s eligible for to get her face and name out in the public eye. She has a photoshoot for a fashion company in the pipe works, as well as potential shoots with other companies after being approached to get her face and name out in the public eye. She has a photoshoot for a fashion company in the pipe works, as well as potential shoots with other companies after being approached to talk about shooting for them. Red also hopes that her modelling might open up doors for her on television (she auditioned for a popu-lar reality TV show last week and plans to audition for any others that come along) and would be keen to be signed to be a repu-table modelling and acting agency.

Meagan Jade

My confidence with my body kept growing, and it gave me the urge to want to become healthier and fit.

For me, modelling has been a wild ride. It started out as something I wanted to try out to see if it was something I would enjoy, and to see if I could go anywhere with it. Now I'm here with this amazing opportunity being published. It's amazing.

Going into my first shoot I was very nervous about how the end results would turn out, if the photographer thought I would have any potential, and worried that I would be laughed at for my body. After my first shoot, I felt amazing. My confidence with my body kept growing, and it gave me the urge to want to become healthier and fit. I love modeling. It's great for anybody, especially for somebody who lacks self confidence like I did. It's fun, makes you feel good, and you get to meet some pretty wicked people along the way too!

All of the photographers I have had the pleasure to work with, I give a huge credit to! They have helped me get over my fears regarding my body, they have helped give me the confidence I lacked, and they worked with me and body to make great pictures. I cannot thank any of them enough! It's amazing when people you don't know, or know very little about can make such an impact on your life, in a positive way.

All I can say to anybody that wants to model, regardless of their age, size or race, is try. Anybody can model. The difference between people though is that some put in the effort and the hours to get somewhere with a modelling career and others don't. So be the person that puts in the time and you'll make it!
