Nicole Anderson

Hey Im Nicky from Sweden, I'm taking the step To the World as a Glamour Model and just LOVE it. Love To shoot and be in the front of the camera, just make me feel blessed to do it. My favorite outfits are leggings and a sexy top or a cool shirt and of course high heels. My hobbies is to go to the gym and train with my PT. He just give me a boost of energy and fill myself with all positive things that it gives!!

I am a person who takes risks. I am a passionate person, so when I do things I do them 100% or I dont do them.

The most important thing for me in a relationship is sex and to have fun together. He must make me laugh and smile.

I think this is me in a short term.

Alicia Sanchez Ugarte

Hi babies! My name is Alicia, and I'm 22 years old! Came to Tennessee all the way from Peru 10 years ago! Which means I'm bilingual baby! If you piss me off you will see my spanish side come out! Lol. I have been modeling since 2010 and I love it! I do acting as well. I consider myself to be a very humble and trust worthy person. I love to help others, which is why I'm studying to become a nurse. I love to cook! I'm a little shy when I first meet someone new, but after a while you won't be able to shut me up haha...My obsessions? Hello Kitty and Oreos!!! My lil awkward secret? I am TERRIFIED of crickets and frogs, I will start screaming like a big baby if I see one!

Aiyana Gilbert

I like to think of myself as a normal 22 year old girl, who attends college, from a small town about thirty minutes from Seattle.

Truth be told, those are somewhat the facts, I now live in a city where the 2014 census labels us as the most dangerous city in Washington State. Although I had a stroke at 18, I pulled myself back together, and I continue to go on with life with people also saying "We didn't think you were going to make it." That's proof and inspiration for most young girls and women NOT to give up on dreams, or ideas on plans that you have.

I want to strive to be a role model with a positive outlook on life. I graduated from high school at 17 (a year ahead), I'm getting my degree in Information Technology, and I'm half-way there. I don't have any kids,

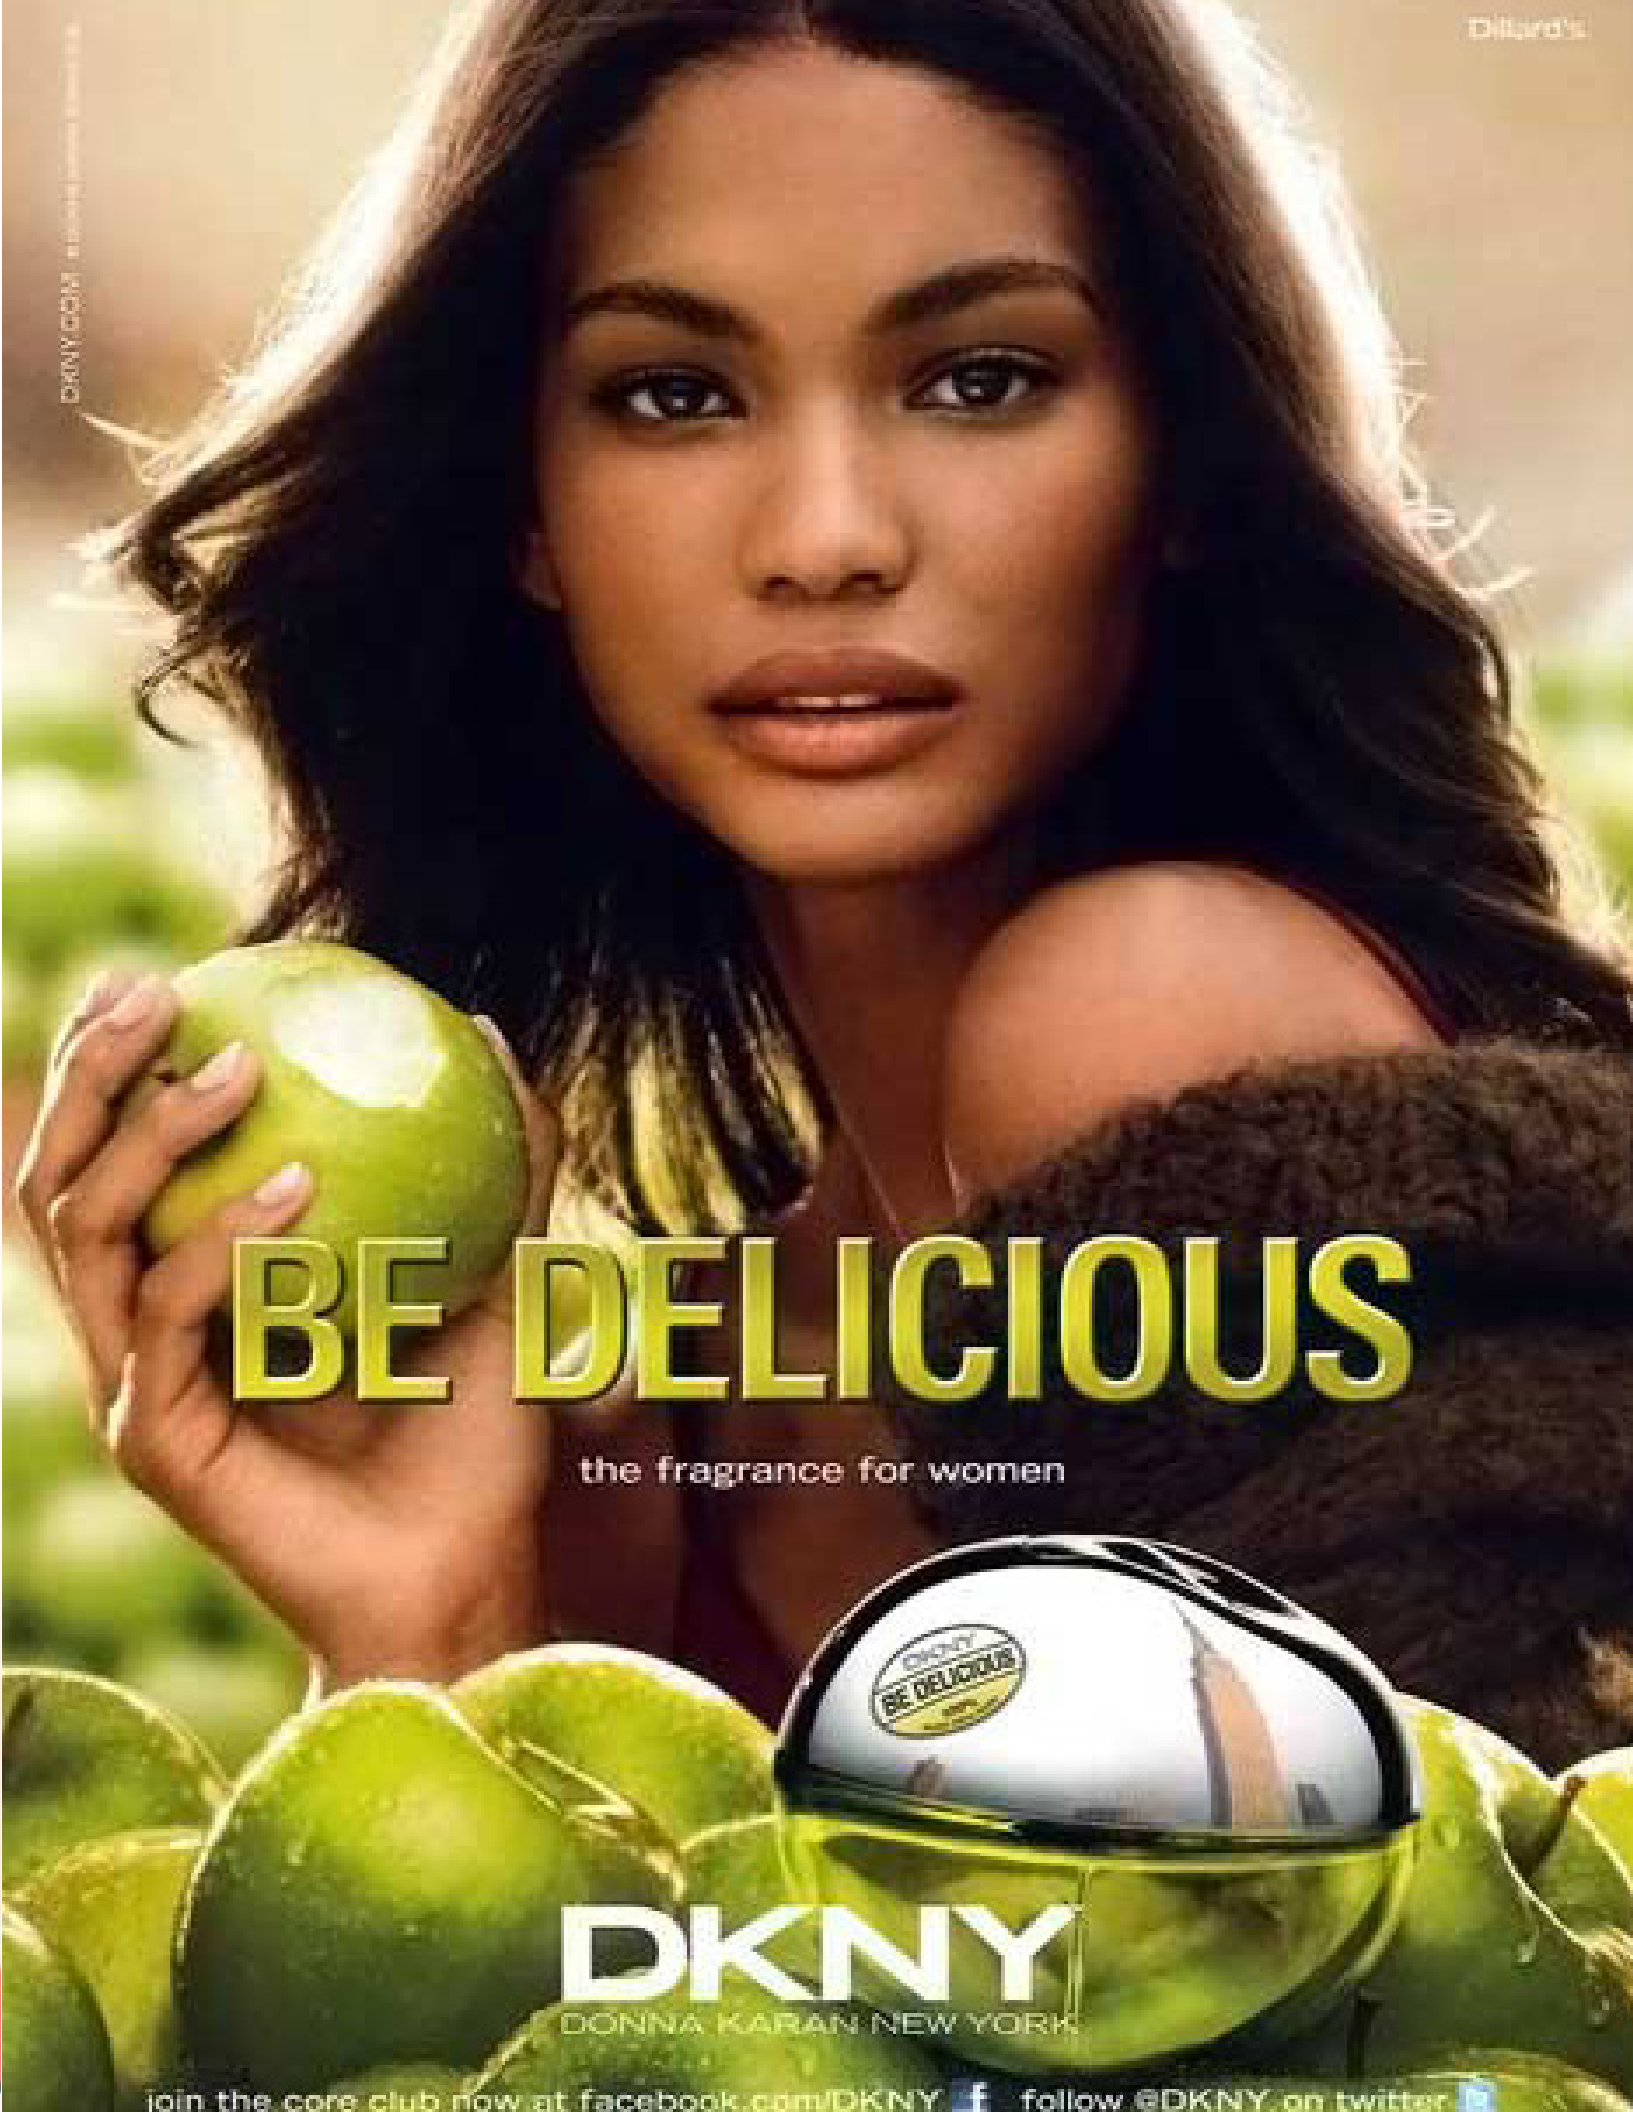

I love to travel and my biggest dream is to see the world-preferably through modeling. To do two things I love would complete my life. As Jhene` Aiko would say, "Is it strange for me to say, that if I were to die today there's not a thing I would change. I've lived well".

Maria Johnston

I am a New England- based model who is signed with Bella Life Modeling Agency.

I am what many gamers would consider me as a “newbie” in the modeling world, yet, I have accomplished so much in the few months of modeling; I have been published various times in Surreal Beauty Magazine and have been published in Goomah,

I have also walked the runway. I give my thanks and my blessings to the many people that I have had the pleasure of working with and learning from them.

In my spare time, I enjoy playing video games, watching films and TV, listening my vinyl records, working out and spending time with friends and family.

You can catch me in action this winter on my YouTube series called A Couple Impressions. Where my husband and I choose a game our significant other doesn't know about or wouldn't normally play; get ready to be full of laughs as you see me squirm and scream during these games.

I have worked hard to earn the titles of Playboy's Miss Social September 2013 and Miss Social Network October 2013. I am very thankful for, and appreciative to all of my fans who helped me get where I am today. I look forward to doing more modeling this coming year with all of their support.

M This golden beach bunny was born in raised in sunny San Diego, California.

Kayla's sun-kissed tanned skin, bleach blonde hair and slim physic are an obvious giveaway that she practically lives at the beach to help stay fit in her spare time. Her big bright eyes and exquisite bone structure are derived from her German and Native-American heritage.

Sara Rosen

Meet model Sara Rosen. After graduating from St. Andrews School, where she played Varsity soccer, and basketball, she went off to college but soon found it wasn't for her and took a break to work at local tanning salon A Royal Tan, to figure out that is what she wanted to do. At the age of 23 she was signed with Bella Life Models in Boston MA. Since then, she has been featured by Esquire Latino and Maxim South Africa, along with catalog work and numerous photo shoots. Sara says she had the pleasure of being able to model for designers such as Dawnmatrix who designed Beyonce's dancers outfits for the most recent VMAs.

Born in Memphis, TN Sara was adopted at a young age and each day is thankful and appreciative of the life she has and the parents who raise and support her. Her younger sister was also adopted. In her free time, Sara enjoys spending time with family and friends, taking her boxer on walks, listening to music, working out, painting, being outdoors, four-wheeling, watching sports, going shooting, and relaxing with Netflix. She says her favorite sport is hockey and she enjoys going to the games to support her favorite team The Boston Bruins. Shooting is a recent hobby she picked up but she says she is a big fan of the rifles. Sara also recently began classes at Toni & Guy which she is very excited about.

One of her biggest goals as a model is to inspire others, and to send the message to women everywhere that they are beautiful regardless if they meet the "standard modeling measurements". Being bullied most of her teen years, she says modeling really helped her feel comfortable in her own skin and she wants every girl to feel that way. We know big things are ahead for this young lady. And we can't wait to see where she goes!

PursiaPurr

Not only Beauty and Brains but strength as well. In school I loved English. I use to love writing essays, poems and stories. Even contemplated writing a book but I think that'll be a future goal.

I'd like to start off letting you get to know a bit about me. I'm an artist at heart and specialize in Airbrush Painting. There was a point in my previous employment where I worked on cars and motorcycles. I spent 3 years working in body shops fixing cars and bikes. I was the hottie ripping off your bumper, doors, fenders and hoods, sanding and priming out dents. I went from a collision shop to a custom bike shop where I became the head painter. You'd find me spending most my time even weekends in the Paint Booth laying basecoats and clear on bike parts, tanks, cars, anything. I was more focused on my art and airbrushing at that stage in life.

Modelling was a hobby on the side. As much as I loved the shop and my crew at the time I had to move on and start a new journey. I get bored easily and my creative spirit had to soar. I needed to become self-employed. I also started thinking about my health and how I could be taking things further in my modelling career, so I dived in to Fitness. It was love at first lift. I went to school and earned my certification to become a Personal Trainer. At this point in life my time consists of custom airbrushing, modeling and hitting the gym hard. I took a break from Training Clients to focus more on my modelling career. To keep my airbrushing in my life I took a unique approach to combine all my passions. You can now find me live on Cam Airbrushing and creating art. Sometimes you'll even catch me creating art Topless. Something about the freedom of being nude...I must be a nudist! When I'm not there, I'm at the gym working off that extra energy. I like to stay busy. I'm Hard working with a touch of class and ass... hahaha

Me in a nutshell.....free-spirit, artist, a writer, optimistic, dreamer, believer, Aquarius, a true friend, loving, caring, professional, classy, fun, tough-ass model. When it comes to modelling, its a dream that has thrived in me since I was a little girl. Capturing pictures with sassy poses and toothless smiles. I am anxious to continue meeting many talented photographers, assisting them in bringing images from imagination to reality, and becoming a part of the art that inspired my insatiable desire to create.

My goal as a model is to continue to be published and have fun with it. My queen role models would have to be Pam Anderson and Marilyn Monroe.

My secret talents include yoga and pole fitness. Yes, I can shake and stretch it with the best of them!

Powell

COVERGIRL

© David J. Vickers Photography

Hello, my name is Jennifer Powell, 38 years old. Born and raised in Canton, Ohio. I have many tattoos that all have a significant meaning about my life. They all tell a lot about me. From my struggles, hard times, fun times, sadness, weakness, wild side and inspirations. I also have numerous piercings. It is very important to me to keep striving for my goals and dreams. One of my dreams as a little girl was to model for a famous magazine and be a CoverGirl. Another dream was to be published in a calendar. I started my modeling career five years ago with the support of my husband and children. I wanted to show my children and prove to myself, that it's never too late to make your dreams come true. A big quote I live by is, "Your life is what you make it". No one else can make your life for you. Also, "your life's a journey, not a destination". I am not afraid to step out of the box and try something new. One month my hair could be pink and platinum and the next month I will be rocking blue, black, purple hair. I am the girl who will try anything once. Heck, even go back for more. I am open to any kind of modeling from fashion to erotic or fun to wild and crazy. If you ever want or are looking for a certain picture, I am that model ready and willing to make it happen. Things that turn me on are men and women covered in tattoos. Another big one is Harley Davidson motorcycles. I always tell everyone, "There's nothing like feeling the vibration between my legs and the wind in my hair!". I love and want to be different than other models out there. I believe it shows others that it's okay to be who you are. Being different makes us all unique. From our scars, blemishes, sizes, things we all are so hard on ourselves about, others don't see. The body is a beautiful thing. Our bodies are just our own canvases. People with tattoos are just more fun and colorful to look at. Beauty is more than just skin deep though. People should never judge a book by its cover. Some of us just write our life's stories on the outside. I live my life on the edge and to the fullest because we are never promised tomorrow. I've been published on many websites, posters, magazines and working on creating my own website, also have my personal fan page. I will never give up and will always push even harder. I'm very spontaneous, fun, sociable, love music, dancing, being outdoors. I love meeting new people.
