Kirra Rose

Hi my name is kirra rose and I am from the gold coast. I am fairly new to the modeling industry and I love it so much so far I have a lot of support from my partner and friends the reason I started later was I had my children first and I never thought I xould become a model but I proved my self wrong. I was born in Australia and I live going to the beach and spending time with my beautiful family if it wasn't for them I would not be doing this. One dream I would love is for my daughter to be like me and grow up and teach her you can do anything you want b if you put your mind to it and luve a happy and healthy life as I said before I am new to all this and would love the support from all my fans.

Jenna Marie Trott

The name is Jenna. 23 years young. From the time I was a baby I was always told I was very photogenic. Modeling has been my thing for a little over 5 years now and I have accomplished quite a bit! In the years coming I hope to keep improving and be the best I can be.

I'm unique, outgoing and I always have a smile on my face! I'm the sweetest most caring person you will meet. I love helping others and making a difference in other people's lives regardless of what it is the littlest thing. I'm a full-time CNA Certified Nurses Assistant and I'm very compassionate! My biggest supporters are my wonderful boyfriend Aaron, and my beautiful mother! I'm unpredictable at times but I hope to someday be something big and have my name out there; maybe even be a role model to up and coming and aspiring models!

I'm from Way down southern Louisiana And am known as a best friend to many. I'm the girl all the boys want around because I can do anything they do. I enjoy photography, modeling, singing and anything that has to do with water. I love wine and hate cigarette smoke But I love the smell of burnt oil and burnt rubber.

BRANDY GOGEL

She is from the small town of Temperance Michigan. She loves swimming and learning new things. In just 21 short years she has experienced a lot of life's twists and turns ranging from some college life to Military training. Although she is no longer in the military, she still loves the lifestyle of structure and wants to go back.

While she is awaiting clearance to go back she is considering going back to school in hopes to become a medical examiner. Morbid sounding at first, but the reason she has behind it is touching.

She actually has the family in mind and wants to give them the closure they deserve. She spends her nights working hard but she plays even harder. One thing this little sweet heart will never tell is that she enjoys feeling afraid. She will push her limits till she is uncomfortable just to see how far she can get. While she is doing this, you might catch her trying to push your buttons as well. She currently spends her free time in bed under the covers with her boyfriend.

Christina Marie

My name is Christina Marie and I am a model currently living down on the Jersey Shore. When I'm not modeling I am a veterinary technician at a local animal hospital in town and I absolutely love my job! I started working with animals right out of high school and have been doing so ever since.

I've been a vet tech for 5 years now. I've been modeling over the past 4 years on and off.

Growing up I was the tom boy that no one thought was pretty. I'm so comfortable with myself and my body now that I love showing it off the way I do and modeling lets me do that. Being able to embrace yourself in front of a camera is exhilarating. Since starting I won a spot in the Bikini Calendar as Miss August, was published in the Bikini Magazine November 2014 issue and also have done multiple photo shoots with many more on the way!

Christina Marie

My dream is to be successful in this industry, and to also get more into acting (I ll be starring in my first independent horror film set to start production in spring). My ultimate goal and one of my biggest dreams is to get the chance to be published in Playboy and to become a Playmate. I grew up around horses so horseback riding is another one of my favorite hobbies outside of modeling.

I was always around the farm doing work since I was a little girl, taking care of the horses and what not, so it s in my blood. I also have become a huge gym person, working out is the best stress reliever. I cannot wait to see what the future holds for me and am ready for anything that comes my way; so ready for it!

BRITAIN JADE

A quiet shy beauty. Growing up I didn't realize that I was a pretty girl or want any one to even think I was, so I put on this tough girl act and adopted this alternative look to scare the boys away! It took me untill 18 to climb out of my shell and quit getting in trouble. Then a few more years to mature and develop my look, I feel just as beautiful with cherry red hair as I do with my natural brunette color! I am still shy and quiet but I love teasing every man who may catch a glimpse of me, I love feeling and looking sexy, being wanted, lusted after... I am a good girl just have dirty thoughts...

I did a few music videos in Ohio for local Rappers and an Energy drink even worked with a few well known Rappers but took a bit of a hiatus. I was doing a lot of traveling back and forth from Ohio to New York, (I just love the city, my heart was made for New York) I'd sneak to the city every chance I got, finally I just moved here. I did a lot of nothing, jobs at salons (luckily I have a cosmetology license when my looks fail!) I'm glad though, I save tons of money since I know how to do hair and makeup myself!

So I visit Ohio for my sisters wedding reception a coupl pics of snapped of me that blew up and ended up on a few sites and modeling agencies began calling me. Luckily, I befriended a model, who introduced me to my personal photographer, Mauricio Morales, (brilliant) he mentors me, helps me understand the industry, looks over me. He snaps some shoots I post them on social network sites, other photographers asked to work with me... Then One source talent signed me a few weeks ago, and also allow me to do independent work such as this!

I am a lover of the opera...my favorite is Aida...you have to see this at the MET in NYC or at The ARSHT Center in Miami...just go see it!

Why I love modeling? Apart from opening doors...who can replace the experiences? The travel? The new and exciting network of new acquaintances and of course the adventure of it all.

Bucket list hobbies: sky diving, dropping from helicopter to ski in Europe, ski in the summer in Chile, donate time to an African zoo, change someone's life who is disadvantaged in a serious way.

Accomplishments: I survived high school and my strict Latin parents, survived my European grandparents (much worse than Latin...believe me!), survived school in Europe, survived college (expensive hobby!) and now for the better stuff....

I am best known for Fashionista GPS (an online Gazette) which I am in the middle of selling and I am very proud of it! My site is currently under contract and I thank those who believed in me and stood by me during times of duress.

My current project is Dining in the hood...a culinary site specializing in "Hood" restaurants and corner stop food caravans...for the seriously budget conscious and seriously picky eater....think of it as the best food for the smallest fare. From 50 cent coffee to 50 cent sodas. My aim is to develop this site as well as distribute local publications thru areas such as Little Havana, Little Haiti, etc. My main target is the hispanic market but to grow into tourism markets.

My quickie foodies tid bit...30 seconds or less questions on food... Mickey Dees or BeeKay? Mickey Dees! IHOP or Dennys? IHOP

Ongoing projects include a food review column for the publication, "South Beach Swag" and I also host Photogenic TVs Club Hour in which they feature Nightlife on the beach. I am also looking to develop a mobile app for the nightclub industry. Currently researching this latest venture but I hope to start soon.

My background in assisting M&As enabled me to work independently and to create sites which benefit consumers on a budget and social butterflies (like myself). I am always looking to invest in startups with an edge.

I am bicoastal dividing my time between South Florida and Los Angeles but I do spend time in Europe. Barcelona is my home away from home in Europe.

Hello, I am considering different avenues other than modeling.

I am going to to be an actress. I currently have been cast for a supporting role in a movie.

I also want to have more time to dance, make video`s and go for my dreams I have had fears of doing in the past. I am finally at an age where things are changing and for the better. Facing my past fears of public speaking. I was a bit shy growing up, and boy has that changed. You can`t help but like me if you get to know me. I`m not trying to float my own boat. I`m just looking at myself in the eye`s of others that know me. If I can help you in any way possible, I will do that....

I have a brilliant daughter that I am so proud of. She`s a genius, graduated with a degree from Bridgewater State University. I love my family, and they come before anything. They have stood by me and my choices my whole life. I am very lucky to have a loving family.

Especially my dad who raised four children on his own while working full time at Polaroid.

One last line about me, I have the best boyfriend I could ask for. We have been together for over 8 years, he too has supported my modeling choices that are not always easy to see his girlfriend posing nude in front of strange men (Photographers)

Lia Tricia

Lia Tricia

My name is Tricia. I have been modeling on and off for close to 10 years. I am from the Greater Boston Ma area. I started modeling later in life than most. I'm 45 and proud of it. I have a beautiful 25 yr old, brilliant daughter. She has decided to use her god given brilliant mind instead of becoming a model. I'm an x-professional dancer, but still have a passion for the performing arts.

I consider myself to be very passionate and compassionate. I truly believe In The Golden Rule, you never know when Karma is coming to nip you in the butt.

CAROLEENA KAY

Caroleena Kay was born and raised in Washington State, on a little farm not too far from Seattle. A diehard Seahawks fan, she busted onto the modeling scene when she was 16. She modeled off and on around having 3 kiddos, and now loves pursuing her passion in her spare time.

Caroleena is currently in the Army and enjoys working out, creating fashion, writing her novel and sultry dancing. A faithful follower of professional wrestling and Walking Dead, she also loves kicking it with her husband over a glass of wine and some dominoes. Caroleena enjoys mechanic work, taking spontaneous road trips and exploring the country. She will never turn down guacamole and especially loves sushi and vanilla soy lattes.

Caroleena recently teamed up with Master Pixel Imaging for this rockin' bike shoot at Kaelin's Custom Cycle in Fairdale, KY.
