Her beautiful eyes always scan a new room full of people. She likes to people watch from the background and blend into a room like a chameleon, and admits freely she has always been trouble, but the quiet kind. The dark-haired beauty hails from North Carolina, but currently resides in Sunny California. Erika has gone as far as the Dominican Republic, but she's got more than just stamps on her passport. Her personality doesn't spark at first, but when she grabs the room, things happen, and she tends to take control of any situation.

Sitting on the edge of the ruffled bed preparing to shoot this evening with a glowing glass of champagne. Erika goes over what she'd call her "exciting" plan for the next day... Wake up by 9 am and start shooting. She says she'd like to go hard, but the jet-lag versus the current nightlife conflict. As she explains the proper way a waiter should pour into the glass, "as to not get all the bubbles". She admits she likes to sleep naked, and is an evening champagne connoisseur, which sometimes may intertwine. She giggles a bit as she cracks jokes on her dad's cool stance and her chosen career, or the "how to lose points or end up in the friend zone" guidelines she's clearly created. She says your in or your out, attraction or no-go. She is never that easy, but if at first you don't succeed...

I was born December 26, 1982 in Chicoutimi, a small French town quite far from the province of Quebec in Canada.

After high school, I started a college course in professional nursing and later I went to the University of Québec at Chicoutimi where I completed a bachelor of science in nursing. After I finished university I worked four years as a clinical nurse in several health care centers. A job rich in human relations and knowledge but also very stressful and modestly paid.

It was at the age of 18, after working all summer as a maid, that I took a course in modeling to learn the basics of the profession. Since my childhood, beauty, fashion, seduction and glamour life have always interested me.

So throughout my studies I did all kinds of contracts as TV commercials, fashion show, photoshoot, hostesses. .. All this gave me a lot of experience but more importantly, a lot of confidence in myself. I also took conscience of the power of the woman's beauty and I learned to highlight my attributes.

To keep fit, I never neglected a good diet, plenty of sleep and a healthy lifestyle.

I've always been very athletic, swimming, horseback riding, dance and fitness are my favorite sports. Moreover, it is with fitness that I have defined the curves of my body, and that led me to participate in three competitions of body fitness.

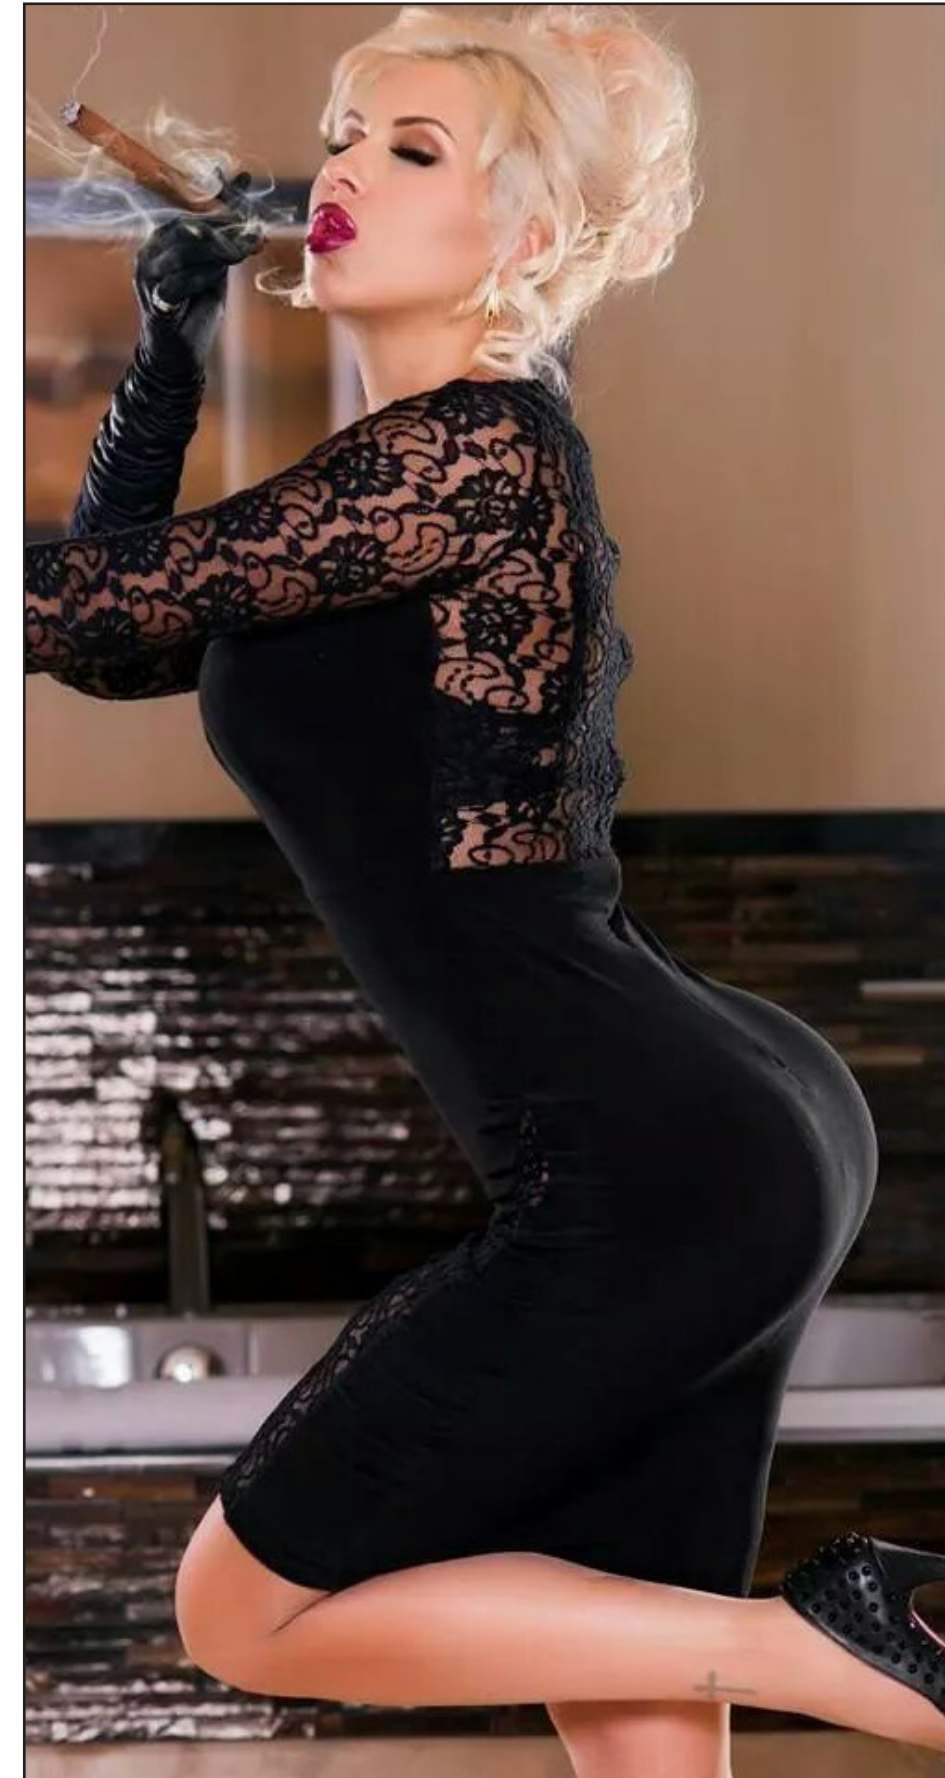

At 26 years old, I had to take the decision to leave my nursing career to move to Montreal and push my modeling career. Since that time I have not a single regret, I have traveled around the world and met some very interesting people who have taught me a lot about life.

I went through different modeling agencies but now I have enough experience and maturity to manage my own career. As you can see in my photos, I am a very versatile model, extremely open minded, I am able to work in fashion, trash, classic, glamour and nudity.

I love new challenges!

My model name is Savi Hart, I am 22 years of age, and am from Canada. My hobbies include barrel racing in rodeos, fitness, riding my horse, bonfires, traveling, singing, dancing, and cooking. I started modeling in January and I found out about the IBMS through social media. IBMS inspired me to start in January because I entered the monthly Online competition, I placed 3rd. My passion for modeling has developed even more since my experience in Punta Cana, I have lots more knowledge of being in front of the camera and I just love it. I had met so many wonderful people through the IBMS which include models, photographer, founders, sponsors; the list goes on. I will be returning to the IBMS one day and I hope to meet many more wonderful people there. My goals for my modeling career is to be featured in Playboy, Maxim and Sports Illustrated!

Modeling became my hobby a year ago but it was not from my own design. I mean who would ask a mother of four, a grand mother, a shorty, very curvy, tomboy that is a recent cancer survivor, to pose for pictures? Me, of all people. I was the ugly duckling growing up in a super small town. I don't wear make-up on a regular basis and I am far from a size zero. Often I am asked what my regular profession is, when I respond that I am a junior high librarian, I get one of two responses. "My librarian didn't look like you growing up or I would have spent more time in the library." Or "do you wear those sexy little librarian glasses." I would never have considered myself sexy or beautiful, photogenic or alluring but those are the words I hear often. I am overwhelmed but the positive response I have received by not only men but also women that love that I am just an average big girl that isn't ashamed of her curves and is very comfortable in her own skin! Being a beautiful person surely is what shines through on my pictures I th

Taylor White, Published Model and Performer, based in Florida

I am a model with 2 years experience and a fairly extensive portfolio. I have worked with multiple photographers, artists, and companies. I have been internationally and locally published and have 12 years dance background prior to my modeling career. I am passionate in my craft, and strive to help make breath taking images.

I started my modeling career after many years of study and practice. I would walk through the magazine racks aimlessly, looking for something that would catch my attention. Without fail I would end up with a copy of Vogue, Elle, Bazar, or W every time. The elaborate outfits, obscure poses, and exotic hair would always keep my attention! I was fascinated with the amount of thought and creativity that would go into each shoot by both the photographer and the model.

Once I started executing my own ideas and reaching out to make them happen I had found that I loved being able to see my vision become a reality. I enjoyed putting the effort into a shoot and seeing it flourish. Working side by side with your photographer and creating something beautiful.

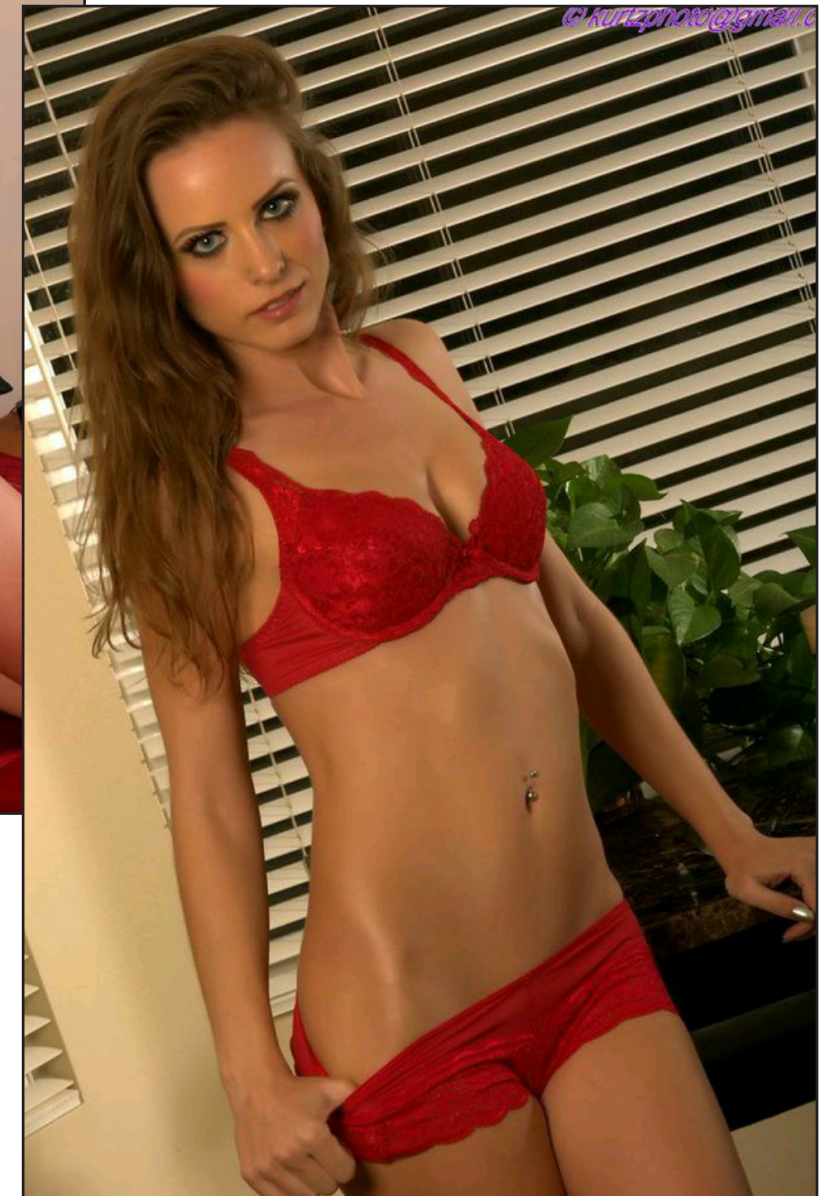

I enjoy many different genres of modeling: (Alternative, fashion, lingerie, swim wear, implied, dance, editorial, glamour, fitness, lifestyle, beauty/makeup, hair, print, pinup, underwater, art, body paint, commercial, and cosplay.) I am also available as a spokesperson, promotional model, and brand endorser.

Hi! My name is Kara Friedman and I'm an internationally published model from St. Louis, Missouri. I began my modeling journey when I was about 18, Right around the time I was finishing high-school. I feel extremely lucky for the experiences I've had in my career this early on. One highlight was visiting the Playboy Mansion and being on set to watch a shoot. That's where my motivation and goals all came from, I was determined to be published. Within a year I had been featured in Playboy Mexico, Brazil, and most recently Playboy Netherlands. Recently though, I've become more and more interested in runway. The adrenaline rush you get when you walk out on stage is indescribable. I've had the chance to work with some fantastic St. Louis designers, and even began working with one of the brands after we met at a show. 'Move In Silence' has printed my images on shirts, jackets, leggings, and socks. I absolutely love this brand and everything they stand for.

I hope to one day make modeling my full time job, But as for now I also work full time as a receptionist. I have also been called a bit of a concert addict. Basically saying, if I'm not working, or shooting.. I'm front row at a local show.

Greeting from Singapore (a small country located at the South East Asia)! I am Li Ling Ling, 39 years old, Singaporean, Asian Chinese, been living in Singapore since I was six year old. I am the only child in my family, and currently living with elderly parents. Currently, working as a Public Relations Consultant (freelance).

I really hope you will enjoy my two sides of myself. One that had a proper Christian upbringing with strict moral and a naughty side that love to flaunt my god blessed assets. Due to my voluptuous figure, I was often nicknamed as bustysingaporean.
