SIN CITY

*Being submissive
a personal choice
fulfillment through submission power exchange
strong words
a new sub may be paralyzed with fear doubt disbelief at their own needs as she learns more
the fears... dissipate
the doubt... disappears disbelief.. becomes acceptance By giving the gift
a true sub feels
whole
satisfied
happy
proud sexy
through the power exchange a true sub, like a rose will bloom..
bursting forth to shine bright with an inner light Gaining strength
wisdom
inner peace
Pride
a true sub is special
a rare prize.

Courtney Eads

My name is Courtney Eads. I love being a home body. Staying home with my daughter watching cartoons, the walking dead, cleaning, baking and coloring. We spend a lot of time outside doing yard work, playing in the pool and bringing the cats outside to play. I am a pharmacy technician and going to school to be a pharmacist. I enjoy knitting, crocheting and diy projects. Modeling is one of my passionate hobbies, it's not everyday you get to feel like a movie star and the end product is never the person you see in the mirror everyday. I knew I wanted to rock a shoot with this classic camaro when Master Pixel called me.

Gem Aura

You can call me Gem. I am 23 years old, originally from Long Island. I am a drummer, dancer, and lover of nutrition, yoga, tattoos, skateboarding, and outdoor activities including hiking, rollerblading, surfing, and swimming. Having come from an artistic background in photography and graphic design, for years I was used to being behind the lens, and now since I've gotten into modeling, it is refreshing to be the subject in front of the camera instead.

In addition to modeling, I do a lot of promotional work and sales for a tattoo aftercare/wound dressing product called Armor Gel, and for several nutrition companies. I travel a lot on a daily basis and live a very nomadic lifestyle, always on the go. I love meeting new people, trying new things, and learning and absorbing as much as I can.

I'd say I am an easygoing person in general and love to go with the flow, but I definitely have an extreme, adrenaline-junkie side to me as well. For example, one of my other favorite hobbies is riding motorcycles and dirtbikes, which is a big passion of mine. Unfortunately I've gotten in a bit of trouble with speeding and racing, and I am in the process of getting my license back - soon enough!

I love nature, animals, and traveling as much as I can. Modeling has been a great way for me to gain more experiences and insight and I hope to continue with it for the rest of my days!

KATHERINE MICHELE

Hi guys! My name is Katherine Michelle, but most people know me as Kat. I am 21 years old and currently studying Radiography and Medical Assisting. Some of my favorite things to do are trying new things, adventures, traveling, dancing, and anything that has to do with an ocean. I've modeled for about 2 years now in the Louisville Kentucky area and I really enjoy it! It has opened me up and taught me some very important lessons in life. For example now that I've modeled I have learned to do what makes me happy regardless of what people have to say. Like exploring different avenues in modeling and thinking outside the box. As a child I've always loved being in front of the camera even though my poses weren't quite the same as they are now. Anytime a family picture was being taken I ran and jumped into the shot making the goofiest face possible. Let's just say I hide the photo album when boyfriends come over. I believe that I will model for years to come. Its a passion of mine and being behind the camera transforms me into a sexier and more confident version of myself.

Megan Leonardo

Hi I'm Megan Leonardo, I love modeling and it's my main passion. I'm from Newton New Jersey and I've lived there all of my life. I attend Montclair State University and I'm studying English as my major. I'm a very hard working student, maintain a 4.0 GPA, I've been on the deans list every semester, and I'm in honor society. When I'm not modeling or studying, I spend all of my time in the gym working out. Maintaining a healthy lifestyle is a huge part of my life. My fitness activities include lifting, running, spin class, and yoga. Without the gym I would simply feel lost. When I have free time, I spend it with my close circle of friends. Usually we'll go shopping and get our nails done together. I'm currently single and ready to mingle, but I'm more focused on my modeling career than anything. My pictures submitted were taken by my amazing agent Jeff Caso, and the bikinis I wore are from Victoria's Secret swimwear and OP swimwear. I did my hair and make up myself because I like to keep a natural look while I'm shooting :)
