I have been modeling since eight years ago. Fortunately I have had the chance to work with many experienced photographers. I am currently working for a Swedish Model Agency, and I am modeling for Gamda Juveler and Serenata.

My special talents are singing and dancing. I used to work as a belly dancer and a gogo dancer in clubs.

Have always been an artistic person and after my first shoot I found it so fun it just left me wanting more! Love how modelling allows the imagination and creativity just run without limits. And enjoy posing for the camera of course do modelling because I am passionate about it and love meeting new people and it fits in with everything in my life. The thing that drives me more is what people say about my pics. I'm not big headed and still can lack confidence at times but modelling makes me feel good about myself
