Sarah Kaileigh

Hello! My name is Sarah Kaileigh, I'm a 5'5" 108 pound 23 year old free spirit. I love to laugh and make people smile. This is all so very exciting for me, I have done a few different photo shoots in the past but not like this one so, I am a little nervous. But hey, I just love to live life to the fullest and I feel blessed to be able to follow my dreams. Life is too short to not have fun! I enjoy shopping of course, but I also love to go fishing on the lake and having a drink with friends. I would love to go deep sea fishing! In fact, I wish could live by the ocean. How nice it would be to be able to walk along the beach at sunset and enjoy sound of the waves crashing on the shore. Yeah I think I could live the typical salty sea life!

I'm really a sweet person but most certainly not shy. Like I said, I like to have fun so I really enjoy the company of someone who can make me laugh. Someone who can make me feel special by showing me they care in all the little things the do for me. That is so important! The most attractive thing about a guy to me, isn't so much his looks, but his sense of humor and kind and gentle nature. Of course, I do like a man who can take charge, if you know what I mean. I would give my all to a man like that.

I'm a single mother of an energetic 3 year old boy who is absolutely the world to me. No matter what life has in store for me I want only to make him proud. I hope he will grow to understand the beauty and magic of art like I do. You know a picture can say a thousand words and that is why I love modeling. It allows me to be free to express myself, to be creative and hopefully, to inspire others through my work. It's so much fun to create a character and act out a part when I'm shooting. I have such a great time doing it. I'm pretty open to explore all kinds of art because its a blast working to create beautiful imagery. I really look forward to all the opportunities that lay ahead. But you know I cant to it alone so I do have to give the photographers and designers a huge thanks because they bring out the best in me, and all the models they work with. They truly deserve a great deal of credit for what they do to make us look good.

Jennifer Benner

Where do I start. Well first off my name is Jennifer better and I'm a native of Edmond Oklahoma. I have my bachelors in business administration, as well as hold a barber license. However, my dream is to make modeling a full-time career.

I aspire to be the girl on the cover of all the magazines. To be the beautiful woman I always saw the covers of my mothers magazines. The women I grew up ogling over. And there's no better time to make that happen the now.

At a very young age I knew I wanted to be the girl I saw in my mothers magazines. I wanted to be in the spotlight, wear the fancy clothes, and just be as beautiful as those women.

By 16 I visited small modeling agency located here in Oklahoma and I was told I would never be a runway model due to my height of 5'6, so I kind of placed it to the side after I got in a car wreck yet knew that one day no matter how long the wait I would make my dreams come true.

During my early 20's began to do promotional modeling and have continued to further pursue other endeavors within the modeling industry . I have delved into my full career, touching base with each genre and and pushing my limits within my shoots.

I have been published in a small calendar shot here in Oklahoma and continue to strive for more publications in my future. With that said I envision my dreams to be my reality. I will be that "it" girl I knew I always wanted to be.

It takes perseverance and patience to make Succes. Dedication and motivation to make it happen.

The one thing i want most in the world is for people to just know my name. Hear my name and know who i am, what i look like. I've been obsessed with cameras since the age of about 12. When i was 13, i got offered a spot in a model agency. It was to expensive for my mom, she told me to finish school before i did anything like that. Turns out school helped me become the model i am today, i had a one year internship with a lovely photographer for school credit. She had me stand in front of the camera, in front of the backdrop, with all of her lights facing me. And she had me pose, and at first it was fun but then it became more. Something I craved doing, i took so much time staring at my pictures and doing my make up perfectly, because I noticed the little things in the photos that just didn't make the picture perfect. I wanted to take the perfect picture. I want a photo to capture exactly how i feel, and who i am. I have been modeling every day of my life since age 16 thanks to that internship, because i am determined to make that photo happen. Years of modeling has left me feeling like a whole new person. And i want to show the world my changes by literally showing the world my changes. Does that make sense? I hope so, i just spoke from the heart.

Lucy

I live in Red Deer, Alberta Canada. I have just started getting my in order and discovering what I want to do in life.

I believe that becoming a better model is the same as becoming a better person, it takes dedication, planning and action every single day. So if you're looking for a model who is prepared to work anytime, who strives to be the best in whatever they do while having fun doing so, I'm your girl.
