Lexi Steel

Hi, I'm Lexi and I live in the City of Red Deer, Alberta Canada.

I am a down to earth country girl. Like most country girls in the summer season, I rodeo, show horses and cattle and support the county fair. My day job I am a mechanic where I work on trucks and cars, operate heavy equipment and fabricate some parts. In the winter months, here in my part of Canada it snows a lot. Makes it very ideal for snowboarding as well as go out sledding with my Skidoo Rev 600. I am as sweet as apple pie, but get on my bad side and I will force choke you. Modelling for me is entirelyly for fun. I don't aspire to be on the next Victoria Secret Christmas Runway Show, my shows are for a private audience.

I'm currently surviving the early years of my 20s. I love to try new things and express myself and I'm thankful that my hobbies allow me to do this. I enjoy doing anything crafty and creative. While modeling, I've learned to love my body and embrace myself. I actually believe laughing is my best calorie burner. If I could travel anywhere in the world, I'd love to go to Greece or Bali. I love naps, Netflix, and long walks to the fridge!
