Helena Walker

My name is Helena Walker. I'm a communications major at Indiana State University. My life goal is to be a professional cosplayer and potentially write my own comic book. I've been reading comics ever since I was a young girl and I was quickly inspired by my favorite characters and their alter egos; which has helped me express my alter egos through my cosplay.

I currently work for Torpedo Comics based out of Las Vegas, which has been a great opportunity for me to participate in some of the biggest conventions on the west coast. I've also been able to rub elbows and gain inspiration from some of the industry's biggest creators, like Jim Lee and Frank Miller.

Amy Taylor

Amy Taylor

Amy Taylor is a super model from Californian who has been in big covers all around the world. We've recently seeing her on the cover of magazines such as Muscle & Fitness Hers, Maxim, FHM, or Playboy, and she already has many more covers lined up this year. Sports Illustrated named her Lovely Lady Of The Day. But she's not a regular model, she's gifted, a commercial pilot, a member of MENSA, received her undergraduate degree in Berkeley, and has an MBA!

What else can anyone ask for in a woman? She also has the sort of curves fantasies are made of (32D-25-35) and she loves taking her semi-automatic out for some marksmanship.

This beauty of Italian and Hungarian ancestry has traveled to 45 countries because travel is her only addiction.

Do you want to know what she finds sexiest in a man? Intelligence. And the biggest turn offs are ignorance and selfishness.

She takes care of her beauty by trying not to fall asleep with makeup on, trying to eat somewhat healthfully, and using top-shelf skin and hair products but most of her looks are just genetic luck. She doesn't focus too much on these looks in daily life. She has always known that they'd fade someday, and that the inside of a person is sexier than any hot shell could ever be.

Now, I'm sure you are wondering where you can find this perfect woman... You can find her enjoying the sunny skies flying, keeping fit at her gym in Los Angeles, or at the beach playing with her dog.
