Hi! My name is Nicole but many people call me Nicki. I've been modeling part time since I was 16. I also enjoy watching movies, reading, walking and hiking, sewing, video games, and exercising. I love chocolate cake, animals, and being kind to others. I consider myself a happy person and try to spread that happiness to others!

My dreams were always to become a successful model and my goals are to one day live in New York America and end up on the front cover of a magazine (le vogue, playboy) my achievements were to be published in a magazine and also making it as far as I have come withought parental support in my younger days. The biggest challenge in my life was to become more confident about myself.

I am a very passionate person I strive for advocacy of special-needs rights . My goals are to promote body positivity for big beautiful women. I see a lot of body shaming in this world and it's not right women are beautiful any at any size . I have many achievements but my proudest ones call me Mom , I also am working on my own podcast building a following. I've been on Seacrest radio show . My dreams are to one day own my own podcast do some kind of plus size modeling and change the worlds outlook on big beautiful women. I love the way my body looks no matter what anyone think .
