Lingerie is such a sensual piece to wear. I take confidence in the pieces I choose to model, as well as the compliment that my body gives to the lingerie, as well as the compliment that the piece, give to my body structure. I feel empowered, strong and beautiful. I've participated in group and solo shoots and each experience brought more and more confidence and experience.

I'm Lana and I've been modeling about 15 years now. I got into this industry not knowing anything about modeling, or how to even get started and it has been one of the most fun chapters of my life.

I began my portfolio on Model Mayhem, working with local photographers and learned how to pose. This gave me the experience to shake any nervousness and become more comfortable with my body and posing.

From Model Mayhem, I really wanted to level up and become published. In the beginning I faced a lot of rejection; rejection emails from magazines became normal for me. However, I didn't give up! Eventually I would submit and receive acceptance emails which gave me the confidence to keep going.

Fast forward to today, I am 34 years old and I'm still modeling and still getting published! Modeling now has taken a bit of a step back, however; I have joined the other side of the lens and I absolutely love it! Photography has become a major part of my life, as it is my main career now!

I shoot most of my own work now, (including this photo set) and shoot aspiring models also. It's an amazing feeling to work with aspiring models who are so fresh in the industry and help them relax and provide them with some of the best photos they've taken.

My next moves are to get back into modeling submissions for myself and continue to grow my photography business! I love this industry, and I plan on staying in this industry in one way or another for the foreseeable future. You will have to keep staying tuned and follow me on social media to see what happens next and follow my journey!

I grew up obese.

Through trials & hardships in childhood, food was my only comfort and it made me gain over 240 pounds. I was lost, confused, depressed, & anxious all the time. I didn't love myself or think that I could ever be more than what I was. I ended up getting a wake up call and I started to change for myself. I started to realize in order to change my life, I had to start with changing myself. It took me over 3 1/2 years to lose all the weight naturally. With diet and exercise. I ended up falling in love with myself and realizing I could do exactly everything I wanted to do as a kid, that I thought I couldn't do. My younger self would be so proud of me today. Confident, in love with herself and Fulfilling her modeling dreams.
