Hi my name is Tuesday Ray and i am born and raised in Phoenix, Arizona. When i wake up everyday i first think of what i can do to make my dreams come true as a model. I have been modeling for 6 years as a free agent so i am constantly up late nights and early mornings promoting myself and trying to get more bookings. It is a challenge at times but until i find an agency truly looking out for Tuesday Ray i will make those sacrifices to make sure my dreams come true.

I am mostly know as a lingerie and fashion model. Some of my biggest dreams are of course to get signed to a big agency but also have the stability modeling so i can quit my job and live out my dream and career full time. I love what i do and i couldn't see myself doing anything else. My biggest achievement of 2021 was being nominated for a SMA award for model of the year and second achievement of 2021 was doing at least 5 fashion shows. Especially with COVID-19 restrictions delaying a lot of events this year.

My dreams of becoming a model started when I won a modeling competition back in 2011. I wasn't really into modeling because I was a straight up tomboy, but that day changed my life for the better. My main goal today is to inspire those people who have low self-esteem, and that are homeless or grew up in the foster system giving them hope that no matter what they been through or is still going through, that they're dreams can come true. They just gotta never give up on their dreams and stay persistent with it. So, far I've achieved being published and growing as a model, and there is so much more I can achieve as a model, that I am working towards completing that goal of mine. But by the grace of God, I would've never made it this far. Some of the challenges that I faced throughout my life, kinda hindered me from becoming who I am. Like, I was homeless when I started my career path, but I never gave up even though things were going bad. I kept my eyes on the prize, and kept moving forward and now that I'm published, my next step is to turn my success into something more and grow from there.

I dream of paradise. Living freely & at peace.

My goal is to fight through my mentality & bust my ass to achieve a life of solitude. I birthed 2 children whom of which I raise alone...that is my greatest achievement & accomplishment. Day to day life is a constant struggle & a consistent challenge..but it's just a bad day, not a bad life.

My name is Neasha but I go by firecracker and I have many goals and dreams one of the biggest ones being me as a motivational speaker for sickle cell disease and stopping the stigma that is on sickle cell warriors. Sickle cell is an inherited disease where red blood cells contort into a sickle shape. The cells die early, leaving a shortage of healthy red blood cells (sickle cell anemia), and can block blood flow causing pain which is called a sickle cell crisis . Sickle cell is also my biggest challenge in life because it affects my body in many ways . Another goal of mine is to be one of the biggest authentic influencers/ models of all time I wanna make a mark on the world and take care of my family . I wanna walk a runway and be in magazines . Some achievements I've done in my life would be being the first of my moms kids to graduate high school and get married . Always staying true to myself no matter the illness I have no matter what sickle cell throws at me I always come back strong and more powerful . I named myself firecracker because I'm very creative ,spontaneous , outgoing, unpredictable like a firecracker on the Fourth of July it's a mystery of what you will see and so am people never know what they will get I'm a lot of things you just have to get to know me .
